Purpose of reserves
All forest reserves are set aside and constituted for the conservation of the forests and other vegetation in the forests and for the maintenance of conditions favourable to an optimum water supply in those reserves.

Constitution of reserves

(1) The land described in the appendix to the agreement set out in the Schedule to chapter 20 of the Statutes of Alberta, 1948, and to chapter 59 of the Statutes of Canada, 1947, and any other land added to it by amendment is hereby constituted as forest reserves.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the easterly boundary of that portion of the Rocky Mountains Forest Reserve that lies within townships 11 and 12, range 2, all west of the 5th meridian between the northeast corner of section 4, township 11 and the northeast corner of section 15, township 12, is replaced by the boundary described as follows:

commencing at the northeast corner of that section 4; thence easterly along the northern boundary of section 3, township 11 to its intersection with the natural line of watershed within what is known as the Whaleback Ridge; thence northerly along that natural line of watershed to its intersection with the northern boundary of section 16, township 12; thence easterly along the northern boundary of that section 16 and of section 15, township 12 to the northeast corner of that section 15.

Acquisition of land

The Lieutenant Governor in Council may authorize the Minister

(a) to expropriate any land in or adjoining a forest reserve,

(b) to purchase or otherwise acquire any estate or interest in land and any personal property in conjunction with it where the Minister considers that the land or personal property is required for the carrying out of any policy, program, service or other matter relating to the administration of a forest reserve, or

(c) to exchange public land in or adjoining a forest reserve for land outside a forest reserve where the Minister considers that adequate compensation is obtained for the public land, and to pay further compensation on the exchange.

Regulations

The Minister may make regulations, with respect to the forest reserves or to the whole or any portion of a forest reserve,

(a) respecting the grazing of livestock, including permits for such grazing;

(b) prohibiting or restricting, or respecting prohibitions or restrictions respecting,

(i) vehicular, pedestrian or other traffic;

(ii) the conduct of any business or commercial enterprise, or

(iii) any other kind of behaviour;

(c) respecting the control or destruction of weeds;

(d) establishing and otherwise respecting fees for services under this Act;

(e) providing for the exceptions referred to in section 11.
Cancellation of permit

8 The Minister may at any time cancel a permit issued pursuant to this Act.

Posting of signs

9 A person shall not post a sign in a forest reserve unless authorized by the Minister to do so.

Offences and penalties

10 A person who contravenes this Act or the regulations or a term or condition of a permit issued under this Act is guilty of an offence against this Act and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 or, in the case of an offence that continues beyond a single day, $5000 for each day or part of a day on which the contravention first occurs and then continues.

Application of other Acts

11 (1) Except as otherwise provided in the regulations, the Forests Act and the Public Lands Act apply to all public land within a forest reserve.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the regulations,

   (a) dispositions of public land in forest reserves other than those relating to timber rights shall be made pursuant to the Public Lands Act, and

   (b) dispositions of timber rights on public land in forest reserves shall be made pursuant to the Forests Act.
